

Day 8 Assignment

You may print out and complete this assignment if you choose. It is designed, however, to also be completed on separate, loose-leaf paper; just be sure to number your responses. Refer to the orange essay writing packet (page 4) for rules.

I. Review of Title Punctuation: Underline or place quotation marks around the following titles. Some numbers have more than one title.

1. Tuesdays with Morrie book by Mitch Albom
2. The poem The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock by TS Eliot in the anthology 101 Great American Poems
3. Michelangelo's David sculpture
4. the article Brookfield Student Named Athlete of the Week in The Vindicator
5. Treehouse of Horror episode of The Simpsons
6. the article World War II on Wikipedia
7. the song Kashmir off of Led Zeppelin's Physical Graffiti album
8. Video Gamer Monthly's article entitled Batman 3 Continues the Lego Saga
9. Scream 3
10. The essay entitled An Evaluation of Bram Stoker's Dracula on the website Victorian Web

II. Review of Title Punctuation: Circle the correct response.

1. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. The Star Tribune had a great article about high school football titled Gridiron Greats.
2. The Star Tribune had a great article about high school football titled Gridiron Greats.
3. The Star Tribune had a great article about high school football titled "Gridiron Greats."
4. The Star Tribune had a great article about high school football titled Gridiron Greats.

2. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. My little sister's favorite movie is "Finding Nemo."
2. My little sister's favorite movie is Finding Nemo.
3. My little sister's favorite movie is Finding "Nemo."
4. My little sister's favorite movie is Finding Nemo.

3. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. Ned Smith wrote an article called Upstairs in the End for Newsweek.
2. Ned Smith wrote an article called "Upstairs in the End" for Newsweek.
3. Ned Smith wrote an article called "Upstairs in the End" for Newsweek.
4. Ned Smith wrote an article called Upstairs in the End for Newsweek.

4. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. We saw the play A Christmas Carol at the "Guthrie Theater."
2. We saw the play A Christmas Carol at the Guthrie Theater.
3. We saw the play A Christmas Carol at the Guthrie Theater.
4. We saw the play "A Christmas Carol" at the "Guthrie Theater."

5. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. Chapter 6 in our science book is titled "The Ocean."
2. "Chapter 6" in our science book is titled The Ocean.
3. Chapter 6 in our science book is titled "The Ocean."
4. Chapter 6 in our science book is titled "The Ocean."

6. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. We read The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn each year in American literature.
2. We read The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn each year in American literature.
3. We read The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn each year in "American literature."
4. We read The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn each year in "American literature."

7. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. Sue's poem, "Adventure at 30,000 Feet," was published in the book High School Poets.
2. Sue's poem, "Adventure at 30,000 Feet," was published in the book High School Poets.
3. Sue's poem, Adventure at 30,000 Feet, was published in the book High School Poets.
4. "Sue's poem, Adventure at 30,000 Feet," was published in the book High School Poets.

8. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. My favorite part of Saturday Night Live is the segment called "Weekend Update."
2. My favorite part of Saturday Night Live is the segment called Weekend Update.
3. My favorite part of "Saturday Night Live" is the segment called Weekend Update.
4. My favorite part of Saturday Night Live is the segment called "Weekend Update."

9. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. For my research paper, I used an article called Turtle Heaven published in the April issue of Minnesota Conservation Volunteer.
2. For my research paper, I used an article called "Turtle Heaven" published in the April issue of Minnesota Conservation Volunteer.
3. For my research paper, I used an article called Turtle Heaven published in the April issue of Minnesota Conservation Volunteer.
4. For my research paper, I used an article called "Turtle Heaven" published in the April issue of Minnesota Conservation Volunteer.

10. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. Have you ever seen the movie Jaws?
2. Have you ever seen the “movie Jaws?”
3. Have you ever seen the movie Jaws?
4. Have “you” ever seen the movie Jaws?

11. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. The song Killing the Blues on the CD Raising Sand by Alison Krauss and Robert Plant was used in a J.C. Penney ad.
2. The song “Killing the Blues” on the CD Raising Sand by Alison Krauss and Robert Plant was used in a J.C. Penney ad.
3. The song “Killing the Blues” on the CD Raising Sand by Alison Krauss and Robert Plant was used in a J.C. Penney ad.
4. The song Killing the Blues on the CD Raising Sand by Alison Krauss and Robert Plant was used in a J.C. Penney ad.

12. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. Paw Prints is the name of the journalism class’s publication.
2. Paw Prints is the name of the journalism class’s publication.
3. “Paw Prints” is the name of the journalism class’s publication.
4. Paw Prints is the name of the “journalism class’s” publication.

13. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. Sally already knows the words to Itsy Bitsy Spider, and she’s only three.
2. Sally already knows the words to “Itsy Bitsy Spider,” and she’s only three.
3. Sally already knows the words to Itsy Bitsy Spider, and she’s only three.
4. Sally already knows the words to “Itsy Bitsy Spider,” and she’s only three.

14. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

1. I really enjoyed reading the book Lord of the Flies by William Golding.
2. I really enjoyed reading the book Lord of the Flies by William Golding.
3. I really enjoyed reading the book Lord of the Flies by William Golding.
4. I really enjoyed reading the book Lord of the Flies by William Golding.