

Brookfield High School

Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame
Nomination Form

The Brookfield Local School District inducted its first class of outstanding graduates into the Brookfield High School Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame in September 2019. These honorees were graduates who have achieved success in their careers and/or have made significant contributions in their fields, as well as to society, their state or on a larger scale. The honorees inducted into the Hall of Fame must be graduates of Brookfield High School,

If you know of a well-qualified and deserving graduate who has been out of school at least ten (10) years, complete the form below and return it to the Brookfield High School Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame Committee, or to the Brookfield Local Schools Board Office. It is essential that your nomination form is complete, legible, and accurate.

The current Hall of Fame Selection Committee will choose up to five (5) inductees for this honor. Selections will be based on nominations and additional information received from friends, families, and the individuals themselves.
