Unit and Time Frame	Standards	Evidence of Understanding	Assessment		Instructional Strategies
			Formative	Summative
4			x	x
	14.Law and public policy are created and implemented by three branches of government; each functions with its own set of powers and responsibilities.	Compare the powers/responsibilities of each branch of gov't-select one aspect for all three branches (ex laws)	video-school house rock/discuss	Graphic Organizer-diagramming the powers of each branch of gov't	Notes-three branches of gov't/powers/responsibilities/law/public policy Study current issue/each branch involvement
December-January
	15. The political process creates a dynamic interaction among the three branches of government in addressing current issues.	cite examples of interactions among two or three branches of govt/analyze political dynamics involved (ex veto)	discuss why gov't shutdown?	Test-diagram the relationship of three branches of gov't given specific situation	Annotated Notes-checks/balances group work-checks/balances related to basic principles
	4. The processes of persuasion, compromise, consensus building and negotiation contribute to the resolution of conflicts and differences.	identify action taken by govt on a civic issue-discuss compromise made	review/discussion-when to compromist	Essay-Comprae/contrast views of current issue/opinion included	Issue Study-read/discuss issue/discuss opinions/views